

2018 Maasai Olympics Safari Exclusive Offer December 13-17, 2018

Next Adventure, Inc., in partnership with Great Plains Conservation & SafariPros, is proud to offer an exclusive opportunity to experience and support this unique event firsthand with 3-4 nights at Ol Donyo Lodge between December 13-17, 2018 with a full day at the Maasai Olympics on December 15th.

Guests will have frontline access to the events and incomparable photography opportunities, as they experience and record a truly unique cultural event. Special attention will be paid to ensuring guests leave the Maasai Olympics inspired that their attendance and participation as supporters has made an impact on conservation in Kenya.

During the 3-4 nights surrounding the Maasai Olympics travelers will stay at Ol Donyo Lodge. Ol Donyo Lodge is owned by Great Plains Conservation and originally built by Richard Bonham one of the founders of Big Life Foundation. The stunning eight room lodge is a National Geographic Unique Lodge of the World and a member of Relais & Chateaux and sits on the 275,000 acre Maasai-owned Mbirikani Group Ranch. Maasai warriors from the Mbirikani manyatta are one of the 4 manyatta's that participate in the Olympics and the majority of the guides and staff of the lodge call the area home.
